

Structured Education

How ready are you for Accreditation?

Diabetes Education Network (DEN)
4th National Conference - Manchester 2010
Wednesday 3rd November

In association with
Diabetes UK
The charity for people with diabetes

Conference Programme

The Diabetes Education Network in association with Diabetes UK and supported this year by a grant from Roche Diagnostics Ltd. are pleased to present this years conference on Structured Education 'How ready are you for accreditation'?

The conference will be held at the Hilton Hotel,
Manchester Airport,
Outwood Lane Ringway,
Manchester M90 4WP

As in previous years, there will be a series of repeated workshops of which attendees will be able to choose three to attend during the course of the day.

Provisional Timetable:

9:00am	Registration + Tea & Coffee
10:00	Welcome and Introduction: - Update on DEN Activities
10:10	QISMET (Quality Institute for Self Management Education and Training) - Angela Hawley DOH & Phil Baker, Chair of QISMET
10:45	Tea and coffee (Served in the Schiphol lobby)
11:00	Workshop session 1 (places allocated on day) see below
12:00pm	Workshop session 2 (")
13:00	Lunch & networking
14:00	Workshop session 3 (places allocated on day)
15:00	Tea and coffee (Served in the Schiphol lobby)
15:15	Presentations
15:45	What is happening in Scotland? - Dr. Chris Kelly
16:00	Summary of day
16:15	Close

The Workshops:

- | | |
|--|--|
| A - Dealing with emotions during education. | B - Facilitation skills for group learning. |
| C - Putting "Social Learning Theory" into practice. | D - Skills for effective peer review. |
| E - Paediatric education. | F - Education for pump therapy. |
| G - Practical resources for carb counting. | H - QISMET diabetes standards. |

Please complete a separate application form (see page 3) for each person attending this years conference and send with appropriate fees.

We hope to see you there. . .

Ian & Suzanne Lucas (Conference organisers)

Conference supported by Roche Diagnostics Ltd.